

UNDERSTANDING YOUR 'WHY'

BECOME A COACH - PART 2

SOUL AWAKENING ACADEMY

REVISIT YOUR LIFE'S KEY MOMENTS...

Begin by reflecting on the pivotal moments in your life. These are the experiences that have left an indelible mark on your soul, shaping your perspectives and beliefs.

Consider both the peaks and valleys — the triumphs and challenges.

What wisdom did each experience impart?

How have these moments moulded your character and worldview?

The roots of your 'why' are often entangled within these significant life events. They hold the keys to understanding your deepest motivations and aspirations.

REVISIT YOUR LIFE'S KEY MOMENTS...

UNDERSTAND YOUR VALUES:

Your values are the guiding stars of your life; they direct how you interact with the world and what you strive to contribute to it.

Take time to identify the values that resonate most deeply with you.

Is it compassion, guiding others through their struggles?

Is it growth, constantly seeking deeper understanding and enlightenment?

Or perhaps it's connection, creating meaningful relationships and community? Your core values are the heart of your 'why' and will illuminate the path of your coaching journey.

CONSIDER THE IMPACT YOU WANT TO MAKE:

Now, turn your thoughts to the legacy you wish to create through your work as a spiritual life coach.

Envision the transformation you yearn to facilitate in others' lives and the broader changes you hope to inspire in the world.

This vision of impact extends beyond personal ambitions; it's about the ripples of change your coaching can generate.

What does this legacy look like, and how does it align with your values and life experiences?

Your 'why' is deeply woven into this tapestry of intended impact.

CONSIDER THE IMPACT
YOU WANT TO MAKE:

WRITE A PERSONAL MISSION STATEMENT:

Armed with insights from your reflections, craft a personal mission statement that encapsulates your 'why'.

This should be a clear, concise declaration that combines your passions, strengths, values, and the impact you aim to achieve.

Your mission statement is not just a description; it's a declaration of intent and purpose.

It serves as a constant reminder of why you embarked on this path and what you aspire to accomplish as a spiritual life coach.
